INTRODUCTION

Highly passionate Computer Science student with a solid foundation in web development, eager to build impactful digital experiences as a Web Developer. I possess foundational expertise in Java Spring Boot, JavaScript, React, HTML/CSS, and a strong commitment to crafting clean, scalable, and responsive applications, as demonstrated through my academic projects. I thrive in collaborative environments, continuously seeking to learn and apply new technologies to solve complex problems. Committed to delivering tangible value, I am eager to leverage my skills and fresh perspective to contribute wholeheartedly to your team as an intern, aiming to drive user satisfaction and achieve company goals.
